Presidential Perspective

WOW! What a great Concours d' Elegance, beautiful weather, beautiful cars and beautiful people. Two of our newest members and first time entrants, John Brown and Jens Troest, both won trophies in their respective classes. Thanks again to all who helped pull it off. For those of you that missed the Afterglow, lots of pictures starting on page 16. Mark Hodges did a great job of putting together a fantastic slide show for the event and breaking the old tradition of late audio visual start up.

Starting in September, our Board of Director meetings will begin at 7:00 PM. It seems that 6:30 was too early for some of our Board members to recover from their afternoon naps. Remember that any member is welcome to attend a Board meeting. Bring your concerns or just listen in.

It is not too late to sign up for the Bowl-o-Rama on September 12th. See details in this issue. This is an attempt to get some of our younger members involved in club events. Even if you are unable to bowl, stop by and have a libation while you watch others excel in the sport.

See page 7 for interesting non-club events coming up in September. By September 1st, I should have passes for the car corral at the Coronado Speed Fest on 19-20 September. Let me know and I'll send you a pass for your car which allows you to park inside the venue.

51st Annual SDJC Concours d'Elegance

Spanish Landing Park, San Diego CA, August 9, 2015

Article and photos by Jim Hallameyer, Editor

The 51st Annual Concours d'Elegance of the San Diego Jaguar Club came off without a hitch on Sunday, August 9, 2015. The beautiful day featured our signature San Diego weather. But, this was in stark contrast to three weeks prior when we were forced to cancel the show because Hurricane Dolores crashed the party by sending rain along with thunder and lightning storms into the area.

However, Concours Chairman, Dan Jensen, and Chief Judge, Paul Novak, were not to be deterred. With the help of our President, George Klein, and numerous Club members, the show was rescheduled and put back together in just three weeks time. Most of the entrants were able to make the new date, 65 in all, and were rewarded with a great Concours experience.

Chief Judge Paul has provided a list of winners. See page 15 in this issue of the Jaguar Tracks. Congratulations to all the participants who made the second effort to prepare their cars for judging and were rewarded with a trophy. Also, thank you to all the entrants who provided their cars for display. They all looked beautiful on the field. Last, but not least, we are grateful to Richard Farler and the staff at Jaguar San Diego for their sponsorship and display of new Jaguars on the show field.

It takes a great deal of effort and many Club members pulling together to make the Annual Concours a success. We should all have a great sense of satisfaction for all the effort expended. Kudos to all and cigars all around!

News from Members

Best in Show and winner in Class C1/PRE at the 51st Annual SDJC Concours d'Elegance is this beautifully restored 1935 SS1 Tourer.

The car was a true labor of love. Owners Colin Seid, Allan Seid, and Richard Annis, report the SS1 was found in Florida after spending more than 30 years, unrestored and in pieces, at the Museum of Transportation in St. Louis. The car arrived in California in boxes, wrapped for shipment as you see in the photo above. Two years of meticulous restoration has brought the car to its present concours winning condition. It is believed to be one of only five survivors of this model in existence today.

SDJC Members Eddie Broderick, Wright Benson and Steve Hawley attended the 24th Annual Automotive Heritage Day car show on August 8, 2015. This event, hosted by the National City Chamber of Commerce, was held on the grass at National City's spacious Kimball Park. More than 219 vehicles were on display. Eddie's beautiful 1967 Jaguar E-Type Coupe was awarded the prestigious "Director's Choice Best of Show" trophy. A great day was had by all who attended.

51st Annual SDJC Concours Afterglow

Grand Pacific Palisades, Carlsbad CA, August 16, 2015

Article by Jim Hallameyer, Editor; photos by Roger McDonald, SDJC Photographer

Ali and Bob Proctor

Many thanks to Bob and Ali Proctor for sponsoring this year's Concours Afterglow. The Grand Ballroom at the Grand Pacific Palisades Resort in Carlsbad, CA, was a wonderful venue for this event. 51 members were in attendance. Mark Hodges prepared the slide show of the Concours and Diane McDonald provided the raffle prizes. Lunch was outstanding!

Chief Judge, Paul Novak, gave a detailed recap of the 51st Concours and expressed heartfelt thanks to all the members from SDJC, JOC LA and IEJC who served as judges and scorers. Appreciation was also expressed to all those who worked the show field parking cars, helped at the Hospitality tent and worked with Concours Chairman, Dan Jensen, at the Registration table. The cancellation of the Concours due to bad weather did not deter Dan, Paul and President, George Klein, from re-scheduling, reorganizing and putting on a great Concours just three weeks from the original date. Kudos to all!
