Presidential Perspective

While driving home from work the other day in fading sunlight, I noticed what appeared to be a lot of rubbish beside the road. After stopping to wait for a green light, I realized the “rubbish” was actually piles of drying leaves from the California Sycamores that line the road in the area. I thought, “Wow, that was a fast summer.” My mom used to tell me that the older I get, the faster time would seem to pass. She was right.

Regardless of how fast time seems to pass, changes are inevitable. This is true for SDJC as well, mainly in the personnel arena this fall. We will be filling the position of Newsletter Editor, a role very ably managed by Jim Hallameyer for the last three years. Jim taught middle school for many years and has retained his keen eye for editing and graphic layout. He also helped the club transition from the hardcopy edition of Jaguar Tracks to the e-mailed softcopy version that is now distributed. I know he will provide very helpful guidance to a new editor. We are also evaluating ways to make this task a bit easier for the new editor, perhaps by providing outside graphic-layout support.

We will also be seeking a new Concours Chief Judge, a position held by Paul Novak for the past six years. Talk about an eye for detail! The very nature of being a concours judge, let alone the club’s Chief Judge, requires (1) a knowledge of Jaguar history and models, (2) an understanding of the JCNA concours rule book, (3) the ability to assign/track judging times, tally and correct scores, and interface with JCNA on all matters concours related; and (4) other management talents. I can say without hesitation that Paul has done an exemplary job that is the equal of any Chief Judge in JCNA. His dedication and expertise will be sorely missed. Fortunately, he and Dick Cavicke, current JCNA Chief Judge and former SDJC Chief Judge, have agreed to help with the transition. SDJC has over a dozen JCNA certified judges, one or more of whom I am sure will step forward to serve as the Chief Judge(s). This will go a long way toward ensuring that the SDJC Concours maintains the standard that most other JCNA clubs strive for.

We will also be filling a Director position held by Lloyd Prosser over the past three years. Lloyd is a retired Marine officer and brought a fresh perspective to SDJC Board matters. He still drives the 1970 E-Type coupe that he bought while serving the country during the Viet Nam era. Now that is a long-term commitment! Fortunately a dedicated club member has thrown his hat in the ring for this opening.

Speaking of change, Jorgene and I were recently driving our XK8 and talking about self driving cars. We’re just getting used to using Uber once in a while and are definitely not ready for self-driving cars, Jags or not! I can’t imagine how they would handle the traffic around the Midway exhibit and Anthony’s Restaurant on Harbor Drive on a Sunday afternoon, especially if they need to find a parking spot. But who knows? Who would have thought that Jaguar would produce a world-class SUV?

IEJC Jagstravaganza Concours

Saturday, September 24, 2016

article by Mark Hodges; photos by Devin & Mark Hodges

The Inland Empire Jaguar Club (IEJC) returned to mile-high Idyllwild after a two year absence for their 3rd Annual Jagstravaganza Concours. Devin and I made the drive up Friday evening because the festivities started on Friday if you spent the weekend in one of the cabins there, which we did. We took a nice easy drive up the I-15 (except for the crawling we did the last 10 miles to Temecula, ooof) and arrived around 7 pm. Our hosts, IEJC President Mike Zavos and Concours Chair Jennifer Hanson, opened their cabin up as a hospitality suite Friday evening. After checking in, Devin and I hung out there for a bit before returning to our own cabin. This really is a great car show, especially if you want to make it part of a weekend get-away by staying in one of the cabins at the host site Idyllwild Inn, which about a dozen of us did.

Five San Diego members attended, bringing six cars. Colin Seid and Richard Annis brought their gray 1935 SS1 Tourer; Tom Krefetz brought his blue 1967 420; Paul Novak brought his BRG 1990 V12 VDP; Dave & Marie Allen brought their blue 2002 XK8 Convertible and their 2015 XF Portfolio (display); and I, as usual, brought my Frost Blue 2009 XF Saloon.

Judging started at 10 am Saturday morning. The weather was nice and cool, but not cold. Our car was parked right in front of our cabin and one of the benefits of staying in a cabin is we had a place to put all our stuff and a place to rest during down times. And believe you me; we used that cabin to its full potential.

There were a total of 28 Jaguars at the show: 5 from Inland Empire; 5 from San Diego; 13 from Los Angeles; 2 from Central Arizona; 1 from Southern Arizona; 1 from our nation's capital, the District of Columbia; and 1 from Guadalajara, Mexico. 24 Jaguars were judged: 15 Champion, 6 Driven, and 3 Special. 4 Jaguars were put on display and not judged.

This year Jennifer reserved the rear patio of Ferro Italian Restaurant, one of the fanciest restaurants in Idyllwild, for our awards dinner. There was plenty of staff and plenty of servers. We were without want of anything. Thirty-six of us attended, filling six tables. Social hour and appetizers started at 6:30 pm. We munched on Grissini (house-made breadsticks with seasoned butter and olives), Crema Di Fiagioli Bianchi (cannellini bean puree, garlic, lemon juice, crispy radicchio, and crostini), Olive Marinate (assorted olives and spicy pickled vegetables), and Formaggi E Salumi (imported cheeses and cured meats). The temperature dropped dramatically when the sun went down and the restaurant staff fired up the propane patio heaters. I really needed those because, even though I made sure Devin packed warm clothes, I forgot to pack a jacket. When our salads arrived (organic greens, tomato, cucumber, and onion, with balsamic vinaigrette) Chief Judge Charlie Hallums announced the awards for driven and special divisions. Then we ate dinner and maybe drank some more, but I don't really remember. Our entrée choices were Polenta Con Bietole E Zucca (imported white polenta and chard, with butter and parmesan), Cacio E Pepe (spaghetti with pecorino romano and black pepper), Lasagne Al Cinghiale E Manzo (wild boar, ground beef, ricotta, mozzarella, marinara, and parmesan), and Melanzane Alla Parmigiana E Polenta (lightly breaded eggplant, marinara, mozzarella, parmesan, and polenta). I had the lasagna, which was cooked to perfection. I love my lasagna a bit crispy and that is exactly how it was served. Charlie announced the awards for champion division during dessert and I took the pictures of all the awards. I couldn't tell you who received what place in which category because I was too busy taking pictures and trying to stay warm. We'll just have to wait until the IEJC posts them. We finished around 9:30 pm and I left for the cabin soon after. While the awards dinner lasted over three hours, it sure didn't feel like it. While at most events that drag on I like say, "Come on, let's go! I'm dying over here," I didn't feel that way at all. I had no idea what time it was when we finished and was actually surprised we had been there for three hours.

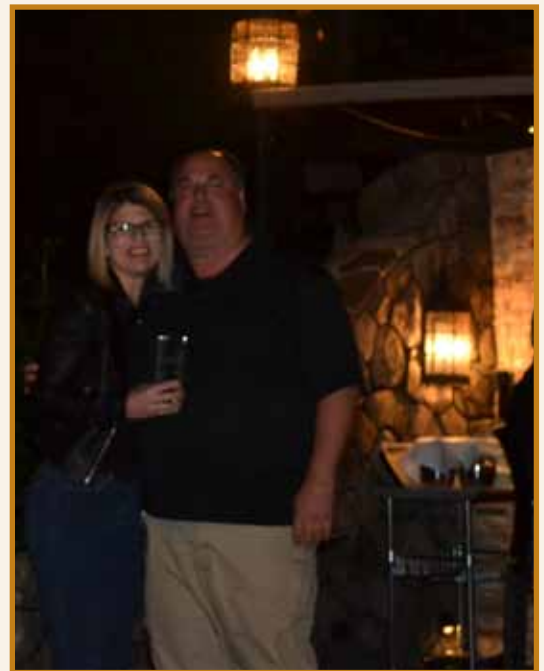

Judging finished a little before 2 pm when we all gathered around the hospitality cabin for the raffle and then retired to our own cabins to rest before the awards dinner. Some went shopping since there were many specialty shops well within walking distance. Many of those who didn't stay in a cabin packed up and went home, missing the awards dinner.

Every year the IEJC board tries something new and innovative and this year they really pulled it off. My suggestion for next year is for you to spend the weekend up in Idyllwild with us all, even if you just drive up for the social events and bring your car for display only, I believe it will be well worth it.

Fleet Week Coronado Speed Festival

“Race at the Base” - Naval Air Station North Island, Coronado, CA

September 16 - 18, 2016

article and photos by Nedra Rummell

The 19th annual Fleet Week Coronado Speed Festival was celebrated at Naval Air Station North Island on September 16th through the 18th. The races are held in collaboration with The Sport Car Vintage Racing Association and represented the highpoint in a series of events that were held to honor and celebrate the men and women of our military. Our own SDJC Board Member and retired Naval Officer, George Klein, has been a longtime volunteer for Fleet Week and served on three committees this year. Additionally, George provided SDJC members with Corral passes allowing us to park our Jaguars adjacent to the grandstands to avoid a long walk.

On a personal note, I was happy to have SDJC member Debbie Woolley attend the event with me, as Debbie and her husband Bill have quite a history on the racing circuit. Our first stop was the Car Show benefiting Paralyzed Veterans. To our delight, we were greeted immediately by SDJC member, Dane Silvestri, who was showing a 1942 Lincoln Continental Cabriolet V12 from the Ryan Collection, with his wife Mignon and toddler daughter Maveni. A real saleswoman in the making, little Maveni, assisted her father by strolling the aisle passing out her father's business cards. Conveniently displayed next to the Lincoln, Dane also was showing the Woolley's white and blue 1965 GT Shelby Replica. SDJC was well represented in the winner's circle - or line at the Speed Festival. Keiichi Yamamoto won First place in his Division with a 1955 XK 140 MC FHC, and Dane won a First place in the Domestic Division with the 1942 Lincoln. As a result of their wins, both were included in the line of winners that took a Grand Parade Lap around the track giving the spectators an opportunity to view an outstanding display. Again this is year, San Diego Jaguar had a highly visible presence with displays, rides, drives, and announcements. Debbie and I registered and were given a VIP test drive in the new XE model, as well as the F-Type. We enjoyed driving both models on the autocross track, accompanied by a Jaguar Academy member in the passenger seat. What a thrill to punch the throttle of the F-Type and test our courage speeding into the turns. It took a bit of time to take that huge smile of excitement off my face. The answer to the question is yes - I am yearning for an F-Type in my garage to replace the XK's! Our thanks to San Diego Jaguar for making this a fun and memorable day. From the lines of people waiting to take a drive on the Jaguar autocross, I'm anticipating more Jaguar sales, hopefully resulting in more SDJC members!

Finally, it was time to head to the grandstands to watch the premier event, the racing. We were particularly interested in seeing SDJC member Joe Harding race in the Pre-War Division. Joe and Deborah made quite the entrance at Speed Fest in their red 1939 Lagonda. Deborah later informed us that on the last lap for Pre-War race practice, Joe's car lost oil pressure and had to be retired, better luck next time Joe! Of course there will be a "next time" because Joe is very experienced vintage car racer and has an extensive car collection. Debbie and I enjoyed the races – as a teaser and bragging rights to her husband, she filmed a video of the racing and sent it to Bill who was working in Colorado. Word has it, Bill has bought another car and will be restoring it to race in the future.

Joe & Deborah Harding in their 1939 Lagonda

We had a fun day of beautiful cars, displays and racing. With so many cars and thousands participants and spectators, regrettably I didn't have an opportunity to seek out and acknowledge all other SDJC members attending. Usually, SDJC has a smaller representation at the Coronado Speed Festival than other events. In 2017, I encourage you all to attend the Fleet Week Coronado Speed Festival supporting and acknowledging our military. We are so incredibly fortunate to have this spectacle and venue right here in San Diego. A special thanks to Debbie Woolley and Deborah Harding for the photography.
