Presidential Perspective

While attendance at our August Afterglow was a little light this year, you couldn't tell from the enthusiasm and fun everyone had. The Rancho Santa Fe Golf Club staff treated us like royalty. I thought the service was as superb as the salmon. In addition to good food, good conversation, and good booze, we were treated to Jim Hallameyer telling us all about the Allen Airways Flying Museum Tour. Mark Mayuga and Charlie Hallums came down from LA and told us about the September Cal Clubs trip to Morro Bay and the October Inland Empire Jag Club Concours up in Idyllwild.

Now that August is behind us, we are officially in the home stretch to finish out 2019. We have over a dozen members already registered for Jim Hallameyer's private tour of the Allen Airways Flying Museum at Gillespie Field in El Cajon and then lunch at Phil's BBQ in Santee. You 'gotta go to their website to see for yourself how fantastic this tour should be. The boys and I are certainly going. I was really disappointed to miss the miniature engine museum tour last year due to a scheduling conflict, so I am definitely not missing this one.

October, November and December activities are still in the planning phase, but we do have the venues locked in, thanks again to Jim Hallameyer. We hope to finalize some of the events at the September board meeting and I'll get those posted to the website as soon as we do.

Nominations are open for the following three open board positions in 2020: Director, First Vice President of Activities, Club Secretary, and Director. If you want to run, let a board member know; if one of us asks you to run, please seriously consider saying yes.

As usual, get all the info and register for our events on the Club Members Page. Well, that's it for now. Hope to see you at the Allen Airways Flying Museum tour.

Until then, take care

Mark

Concours Afterglow Luncheon

August 18th, 2019

Recap by Mark Hodges

Pictures by Dave & Matt Allen

While attendance at our August Afterglow was a little light this year, you couldn't tell from the enthusiasm and fun everyone had. The Rancho Santa Fe Golf Club staff treated us like royalty. I thought the service was as superb as the salmon. None of this could have been possible though, without the graciousness of Dave Putnam for hosting the event.

The guest list was a veritable who's who in the annals of Jaguar clubbing: Dave, Marie, and Matt Allen; Becky Bates; Diane Bauman; Tim and Debbie Bennett; Roger and Mary Copeland; Jim Hallameyer; Mark, Trevor, and Devin Hodges; Ralph and Ann Howe; Rudy and Cheryl Hradecky; Dan and Jorgene Jensen; George and Terry Klein; Richard Lawler and Radiance Bentley; Chuck and Kathy Leuthen; Mike and Peggy Loper; Mark Mayuga; Will and Maritza Nighswonger; Paul Novak; Bob and Ali Proctor; Dave, Brad and Windley Putnam; Pete and Christa Rieth; Nedra Rummell and Amy Rummell Grubaugh (Grant's niece visiting from out of town); Al and Kathleen Steele; Terry and Mary Pat Tilton; Regina Trup and Rich Jachimowicz; James and Elizabeth Waite; and Lynn and Mendi Wyatt.

The afternoon began with a cocktail hour; then lunch, which included mustard crusted chicken, pan seared salmon, or grilled flat iron steak. Dessert was a trio of mini tarts. The wait staff were quick and efficient, moving about the tables bringing drinks, dishes, and the removing them with the same efficiency when we finished.

After lunch, I started the business portion of the meeting and thanked everyone who helped me put on the Concours and Afterglow. It really was a team effort. Jim Hallameyer told us all about the Allen Airways Flying Museum Tour coming up in a few weeks with lunch at Phil's BBQ, the Election Luncheon in November, and the Holiday Party in December. Mark Mayuga and Charlie Hallums made it down from LA and told us about the September Cal Clubs trip to Morro Bay and the October Inland Empire Jag Club Concours up in Idyllwild. Dave Putnam told us about the San Diego British Car Day in October.

The afternoon finished up with one of Diane McDonald's world-famous raffles. Since Diane could not attend, we were treated to Debbie Bennett, Ali Proctor, and Nedra Rummell filling in. They were entertaining as usual, although at times, somewhat unintentional. Who says you need to latch the door when you are spinning the ticket carousel?

All in all, I was quite pleased with the Concours and the Afterglow. It was a great conclusion to a great season. While both events were a lot of work, it was very rewarding work. My thanks to my sons Devin and Trevor, who were right there with me the whole way. Also, my thanks to all who attended, and to everyone who helped with the planning and execution. The biggest thanks of all goes to Dave Putnam, whose family are club members, and who hosted the event.

Notes from the Concours Judges Tent

September 2019

By Pete Rieth, Chief Judge, San Diego Jaguar Club

I must now offer an apology. In the August edition of Jaguar Tracks, I reported the top two standings for Class D10/K8 in error. Correctly stated, the correct standings reflect Will Nighswonger in first place with a score of 9.977, and Terry Tilton in second place with a score of 9.960. Ken Colby remains in 3rd place with his score of 9.797.

Now, on a lighter note, a bit of movie trivia:

The movie "The Best of Everything" (1959) with Joan Crawford won two Oscars. It stars what two Jaguars?

Answer: A white XK 150 "S" (see red inset lower right in the illustration) and a green Mark I. Diane Baker (or her double?) performed quite a stunt in the movie as she jumped out of the moving XK 150 during an argument.

(Source: www.imcdb.org)

The Mark IX shown in this Harper's Bazaar Jaguar ad of October, 1959 did not appear in the movie.

Letters to the Editor

Actually, just some neat stuff from a couple of our members.

Tim Bennet found a great article on the Jaguar XJ13 and Rudy Hradecky shares a profile of the Bertone-Jaguar Pirana. Thanks Tim and Rudy!

The Jaguar XJ13 never came to life as the Le Mans-ready race car the British firm imagined it would be. However, Ecurie Cars wants to turn back the clock and answer the question "what if?"

This is the Ecurie LM69, which Ecurie Cars said is meant to be road- and track-going recreation of the original Jaguar XJ13.

For those not up to speed on the original Jaguar model, only one exists, and it sits in the British Motor Museum. The car was originally developed for racing, but FIA regulation changes in 1968 meant the XJ13 never hit the track in 1969 as intended. It crashed in 1971, but it was fully restored following the incident.

England in 1967 was a place to push the limits. Miniskirts and Jimi Hendrix gave London a new vibe, and Donald Campbell went over the edge in pursuit of the thrill.

John Anstey was the editor at The Daily Telegraph, and he dared his staff to create the ideal enthusiast's machine. "The car he would create for his own pleasure if funds were unlimited.

Editor's Reminders

Reminder #1: Remember when going out of town to print out a copy of the cover page of the most recent "Jaguar Tracks" and take it with you. When you find a good setting just snap a picture of yourselves holding up the cover page with a nice view of the scene behind you. And if you've got your Jag in the shot, even better. Then all you need to do when you get home is email the picture to chuckleuthen@cox.net along with a description of your location and I'll do the rest to feature it in a "Where in the Word" article!

Reminder #2: Don't forget about our "Getting to Know" feature! It's intended to help all of us get to know each of you just a little bit better. Tell us about yourselves. Tell us how you became enamored with Jaguars, how you came to be part of our great club and anything else you'd like to share. Don't be shy. If you don't tell us about yourselves we're just going to make stuff up. Might as well let the cat out of the bag and send me an email with a write-up and a picture to chuckleuthen@cox.net and I'll run a feature!
